Exploring Sexual Behaviour in Children & Young People Conference

This conference will focus on a range of hot topics relating to Child and Adolescent Sexual Behaviour. The conference is designed for professionals supporting children and young people in any professional capacity including social care, health and education.

We aim to provide you with a better understanding of this difficult topic via the exploration of current research and practice approaches to give you more confidence to support the children and young people you work with.

The themes of the day will cover a continuum of sexual behaviours ranging from the expected healthy behaviours to the complexities and impact of harmful sexual behaviour. We do hope you will join us!

Conference Programme

0900 – 0930	Registration and Refreshments on Arrival
0930 – 0935	Welcome and Introduction from the conference chair Jim Taylor , Director, Knows Autism
0935 – 1035	Relationships and Sex Education and the Sexual Behaviour of Children and Young People • Normal, problematic and harmful sexual behaviour in children & young people: what do we know? • Supporting children's healthy sexual development, delivering an age-appropriate healthy relationships and sexual behaviour curriculum including how best to talk about difficult subjects • Understanding, and talking about gender and sexuality diversity and how to get it right to support well being • Sexual harassment in young people – a boy's voice • Resources and tools to support Dr Sophie King-Hill , Senior Fellow, Health Services Management Centre, University of Birmingham
1035 – 1100	Refreshment Break
1100 – 1200	Autism & Harmful Sexual Behaviour Navigating the complexities of society in relation to gender, sex and sexuality can be challenging for all young people. This is most apparent in supporting children and young people who are autistic and are displaying problematic or harmful sexual behaviour. David will cover: • The importance of sex education • Exploration of the over representation of young people • Obsessional interest and misinterpretation of behaviour • Intervention approaches David Russell , Community Safety & Justice Manager, Midlothian Council
1200 – 1215	Questions and discussion from morning session
1215 – 1315	Lunch
1315 – 1320	Introduction to the Afternoon Session Jim Taylor , (As Before)

1320 – 1420	Growing Up Online - Technology Assisted Harmful Sexual Behaviour & How to Prevent It • Understanding the nature and context of risks children face from peer led sexual harassment and abuse online • Pathways into problematic and abusive sexual behaviours online in childhood and adolescence • Role of pornography on adolescent sexual development • What is normative online sexual behaviour and when should adults be concerned • Assessment and intervention approaches when concerning behaviour is identified • Primary prevention – preventing technology assisted harmful sexual behaviour before it happens Stuart Allardyce , Director Stop It Now! Scotland / Lucy Faithfull Foundation
1420 – 1500	Involuntary Celibate (Incel) The term 'Incel' is one that appears to be having more media attention than previous years and its link to extremism and pro-violent views should be considered within Public Protection agendas. Incel is the abbreviated term of 'involuntary celibate' and a movement that has quickly accelerated and shares some views with 'manosphere' attitudes that feel gender inequality is either a myth or that men are the in equal gender. In this presentation David will provide you with more understanding on this threat and cover areas such as: • Incel ideology • Links to violence • Online activity • Prevention and intervention David Russell , Community Safety & Justice Manager, Midlothian Council
1500 – 1515	Fruit Juice and Stretch Break
1515 – 1535	Case Study TBC
1535 – 1550	What's Next? Questions, discussion, and practical top take-away messages from the conference and how to make them tangible outcomes. We'll also consider professional self-care too, without taking care of yourself, you won't have the energy to help the children and young people you support.
1550	Approximate conference close
